

Anti-Ragging Committee

The Management and staff of the institution are committed to nurture ragging free ambience in the campus. Apt care is taken to instill respect, among students, towards all others. Boys are encouraged to manifest their unconditional dignity in their thoughts and behavior. Girls are guided to represent assertiveness in their thinking, interactions and transactions with others.

The Institution has an Anti-Ragging Cell to provide confidence among students in their academic life.

Functions of the Committee

The Anti-Ragging Committee is determined,

- (1) to organize periodical meetings to discuss important ragging related issues and incidents if any, arrive at solutions, and getting thorough inputs regarding UGC guidelines on Anti-Ragging,
- (2) to act as a mediating bridge between the Anti-Ragging squad, institutional administration and students,
- (3) to prevent all psychological influences leading towards ragging,
- (4) to inculcate value-oriented thoughts among students,
- (5) to reinforce, from time to time, the spirit of 'No Ragging Campus' among students,
- (6) to interact with students individually with the objective of getting feedback on the administrative system regarding ragging free campus,
- (7) to educate students, during general assembly, for their realization towards responsible behavior towards others,
- (8) to organize awareness programmes on 'Decent Behavior' towards others,
- (9) to propagate legal consequences of ragging and the need for preference for freedom from inhuman ragging culture,

- (10) to pay attention to recommendations of the Anti-Ragging Squad in the right perspective,
- (11) to maintain close monitoring on students' behavior in hostels in the campus to ascertain their dignified behavior,
- (12) to acknowledge students' complaints, conduct inquiry into the issues and submit reports to authorities along with recommendations for action proceedings.

Roles of Committee Members

The members of the Anti-Ragging Committee, based on the nature and intensity of act of ragging, may, in the very presence of the Principal, decide to take any of the following actions on offenders.

- (1) Cancellation of admission,
- (2) Suspension from classes,
- (3) Withholding / withdrawing of benefits like scholarship etc.,
- (4) Debarring from appearance at tests/examinations/interviews etc.
- (5) Withholding of results
- (6) Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meets, tournaments, youth festivals etc.,
- (7) Suspension / expulsion from the hostel,
- (8) Rustication from the institution for a specified period,
- (9) Expulsion from the institution and consequent recommendation for debarring from admission to any other institution,
- (10) Collective punishment: When the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential ragers.

Role of Student-Mentors

The student mentors have definite roles to play in the process of keeping the campus ragging free. They Student-Mentors',

- (1) act as a role model to others and assist in mentoring activities. They will visit their mentees in hostel(s) along with the faculty member(s). They will introduce themselves to the freshers and orient them properly in the presence of the faculty member(s).
- (2) aid new students to settle down with ease and make a smooth and peaceful transition to college life, and help them in adapting to new environments.
- (3) act like peer counselors for the new students.
- (4) challenge negative behaviors on the part of mentees and promote observance of the code of conduct in the campus.
- (5) provide information regarding contact numbers of college authorities, hand over printed information in induction and orientation programmes to the new students in the form of booklets, leaflets, etc. which emphasize on the need for ragging free campus.
- (6) alert Warden immediately, if any students are found to be prone to ragging, counsel such students and suggest methods for adjustment or lodging suitable complaints.

Role of Parents

The parents have special accountabilities to justify in the process of keeping the campus ragging free. Their responsibilities include,

- (1) Prompt reporting of instances of ragging to the concerned authorities in the campus,
- (2) Fostering of good network relationships among parents for proper information initiatives,
- (3) Collective initiative to discuss different issues related to students' behavior,
