International Yogaday

Date: 21.06.2018

Venue: RISE Campus

No. of Participants – Youth from the nearby village (97members)

Collaborated agency:Pyramid yoga

On the International Yoga Day, Yoga Guru Sastry Garu is invited to the Campus where he has given demonstrations to the youth of Valluru after briefing them about the importance of Yoga. He made two batches of the participants to perform Yoga under his keen direction and observation.

Meditation, the cornerstone of the program, followed the yoga session. The room transformed into a sanctuary of peace as Mr. Balasubramanyam led the participants through guided meditation. The soothing words, coupled with the tranquil ambiance, allowed the participants to delve into a realm of relaxation, releasing the accumulated stress from both body and mind. During the interactive sessions, Mr. Balasubramanyam patiently addressed personal health concerns raised by the participants, offering remedies and suggestions tailored to individual needs. His expertise and dedication shone through as he shared the wisdom of yoga, not just as a physical exercise but as a holistic approach to life. For the working women in the audience, the yoga sessions became a haven—a space where they could replenish their emotional strength to tackle the challenges of nurturing a home, excelling in their careers, and managing the complexities of daily life.

The three days of integrated scientific yoga left an indelible mark on the participants. The transformative power of yoga became evident as they walked away with calm minds, improved concentration, and a sense of rejuvenation. The echoes of "Om" lingered in the air, creating a lasting reminder that a few minutes of yoga and meditation could indeed be a great remedy for the stresses that life throws our way. As the participants dispersed, carrying the teachings of yoga into their lives, the RISE Krishna Sai Gandhi College of Engineering stood proud, knowing that it had not only imparted knowledge but had also contributed to the well-being of the minds and bodies within its academic community. The journey towards a balanced and harmonious life had begun, and the spirit of yoga would continue to resonate within the walls of the institution, touching the lives of many for years to come.

Outcome of the Event:

Increased awareness of yoga promotes better physical and mental well-being in individuals.

Yoga awareness leads to improved stress management and enhanced overall health in the community.

Greater knowledge about yoga encourages regular practice, fostering a balanced and harmonious lifestyle.

CELEBRATIONS OF CONSTITUTION DAY

Date:26-12-2018

Venue: RISE Campus

No. of Participants – All students(280)

Collaborated agency: RISE Group of institutions: ongole

In adherence to the directives received from the university, the esteemed RISE KRISHNA SAI GANDHI GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS undertook a series of impactful activities aimed at fostering intellectual growth and promoting civic awareness within its student body. The multifaceted event, organized by the college's National Service Scheme (NSS) unit, unfolded within the inspiring confines of the college premises.

Preamble Recitation and Academic Engagements:

At the onset of the day, students across all classes were guided to commence their sessions by reading out the Preamble. This not only instilled a sense of constitutional consciousness but also set the tone for the day's academic pursuits.

Diverse Activities:

The NSS unit orchestrated a diverse array of activities in alignment with the university's instructions. Paramount among these was the organization of a Mock Parliament, providing students with a practical understanding of legislative proceedings. Additionally, the college resonated with the fervor of spirited debates and eloquent expressions as elocution and debate competitions unfolded simultaneously.

Elocution and Debate Competitions:

The management, comprising eminent personalities within the institution, assumed the roles of chief organizers for the day. Under their able guidance, elocution and debate competitions were conducted with precision and enthusiasm. Winners of these intellectually stimulating contests were accorded due recognition, receiving certificates from the distinguished trio of the Chairperson, Director, and Principal.

Civic Consciousness and Intellectual Nourishment:

The holistic approach of the event extended beyond competitions to encompass enlightening lectures and essay competitions. Students were encouraged to articulate their thoughts on critical issues, thereby fostering a culture of intellectual discourse and critical thinking within the academic community.

Conclusion:

The Academic Enrichment Day at RISE KRISHNA SAI GANDHI GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS was not merely a compliance with university guidelines; it was a manifestation of the institution's commitment to holistic education. By intertwining the fabric of constitutional awareness, parliamentary ~~governance~~, and intellectual prowess, the event encapsulated the essence of academic excellence and civic responsibility. Through such initiatives, the college continues to shape its students into informed, responsible citizens poised to contribute meaningfully to society.
