REPORT ON THE NSS FOUNDATION DAY-PLANITATION

Date: 24-09-2021

Venue: RISE CAMPUS

No. of. Participants: 90

Collaboration with: Youth of neighbor Village

“MYEARTH-MYDUTY”

The essence of life, oxygen, is intricately linked to the existence of trees. In the face of global warming, where the alarming rise in carbon dioxide levels poses a threat to our planet, the significance of tree plantation cannot be overstated. Recognizing this imperative, the NSS Unit of RISE KRISHNA SAI GANDHI College orchestrated a meaningful "Tree Plantation" program, themed "MY EARTH – MY DUTY," on the Foundation Day of National Service Scheme (NSS) on September 24, 2021. The event unfolded on the college ground and within the campus, drawing the participation of the NSS Programme Coordinator, college staff, and 90 enthusiastic youth from the Valluru village. Guided by the college's Principal and NSS Program Coordinator, the volunteers zealously planted more than 100 trees. Beyond the act of planting, they strategically placed bricks as barricades, symbolizing their commitment to safeguarding the newly planted green life. Each one embraced the responsibility of nourishing and maintaining the allocated plant, fostering a sense of collective duty towards the environment. Such initiatives underscore the pivotal role educational institutions play in cultivating environmental consciousness and fostering a sustainable future.

Outcomes of the event

- Village youth plant over 100 trees, fostering a greener, sustainable community environment."
- "Successful mobilization of youth in extensive plantation drive, enhancing local biodiversity and awareness."
- "Youth-led initiative plants diverse native species, contributing to ecological balance and village beautification."

REPORT ON THE YOGA

Date: 11-11-2021

Venue: RISE CAMPUS

No.of.Participants: 90

Collaboration with: Patanjali yoga

On the occasion of NATIONAL EDUCATION DAY , College NSS committee organize the YOGA class for the village youth of Valluru Village.

A few minutes of Yoga & Meditation during the day can be a great way to get rid of stress that gathers daily-in both the body and mind. Yoga postures, Pranayama and meditation are effective techniques to release stress. Meditation is Relaxation which gives calm mind, good concentration and Rejuvenation of the body and mind etc. Particularly for a working woman, Yoga is a great remedy to remove her tensions which definitely affects her health because she has to nurture the home, fulfill a demanding career, take care of the family, handle household work; she has to play multi roles with her skills.

In the fast-paced world, stress had become an unwelcome companion for many, especially the working women who juggled multiple roles with finesse. The administration at RISE Krishna Sai Gandhi College of Engineering understood the significance of addressing this issue and decided to organize a three-day integrated scientific yoga session. The college collaborated with the renowned Patanjali Yoga Peeth – Bharath Swabhimani Trust to ensure the sessions were not just informative but transformative. The event kicked off on a serene morning in late November, with the NSS volunteers actively participating in making the program a success. The spacious auditorium was filled with eager faces, each seeking solace and relief from the burdens of their hectic lives.

Mr. G. Balasubramanyam, a seasoned yoga trainer from Patanjali Yoga Peeth, took the stage with an aura of calmness that instantly put the audience at ease. He began the session by emphasizing the importance of yoga and meditation in managing stress and promoting overall well-being. As the participants settled into comfortable postures, Mr. Balasubramanyam guided them through a series of yoga postures, explaining the benefits of each with a deep understanding of the human body. The room echoed with the rhythmic flow of breath as Pranayama techniques were introduced, helping the participants connect with their inner selves.

In view of this, RISE Krishna Sai Gandhi College of Engineering has conducted an awareness programme on Yoga and Meditation for the youth of Valluru village. The Yoga trainer Mr. G. Bala subramanyam Garu have taken classes with high level of dedication. He also explained remedies for personal health problems to the participants with lot of patience.

REPORT ON THE EENADU TALENT TEST

Date: 10-12-2021

Venue: RISE INDIA

No. of Participants: 190

Collaboration with: Eenadu print media

In the heart of the city, the Rise Krishna Sai Gandhi Group of Institutions was abuzz with excitement as National Human Rights Day approached on December 10, 2021. This year, the National Service Scheme (NSS) at the institution had planned something truly special to commemorate the occasion. The NSS, known for its commitment to social causes, decided to celebrate human rights through a unique avenue – a talent test in collaboration with Eenadu Print Media.

As the students eagerly prepared for the event, whispers of anticipation echoed through the hallways. The talent test wasn't just about showcasing artistic abilities; it was a platform for students to express their perspectives on human rights issues creatively. The cooperation with Eenadu Print Media added an extra layer of significance, turning the event into a bridge between the academic world and the media, amplifying the students' voices on a broader scale.

On the eve of National Human Rights Day, the campus was transformed into a vibrant arena. Students from various disciplines gathered, each one bringing their unique talents to the forefront. Paintings, poetry, music, and theatrical performances filled the air with creativity and passion. The NSS volunteers, adorned in their distinctive uniforms, moved energetically through the crowd, ensuring the smooth conduct of the event.

The talent test became more than just a celebration; it evolved into a powerful statement on the importance of human rights. Each piece of art, every verse recited, and all the performances reflected the students' understanding of the issues at hand. The association with Eenadu Print Media provided a valuable platform for these voices to reach a wider audience, fostering awareness and empathy.

The day reached its pinnacle with an awards ceremony. The NSS, in collaboration with Eenadu Print Media, recognized and celebrated the outstanding contributions of the students. The winners not only received accolades but also the assurance that their voices had been heard and acknowledged.

As the event concluded, the spirit of celebration lingered on. The Rise Krishna Sai Gandhi Group of Institutions, through its collaboration with NSS and Eenadu Print Media, had not only marked National Human Rights Day but had also sown the seeds of awareness and advocacy among the students. The celebration wasn't just confined to that particular day; it became a catalyst for ongoing conversations and actions, ensuring that the principles of human rights continued to resonate within the institution and beyond.

Report on SANKRANTI SAMBARAALU

Date:09-01-2022

Venue: RISE Campus

No.of.Participants: All Girl Students and women in the neighbor village(350)

Collaboration with: RAGA

Makar Sankranti(also known as Makara Sankranti or Maghi) is a festival day in the Hindu calendar, in reference to deity Surya (sun). It is observed each year in January. It marks the first day of sun's transit into the Makara (Capricorn), marking the end of the month with the winter solstice and the start of longer days.

Being a festival that celebrates the solar cycle, it usually falls on the same Gregorian date every year. The festivities are known by various names such as Lohri by north Indian Hindus and Sikhs, Makara Sankranti (Pedda Pandaga) in Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh, Sukarat in central India, Magh Bihu by Assamese, and Pongal by Tamils.

The Management, staff and students of RISE KRISHNA SAI GANDHI GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS celebrated "Sankranthi Sambaralu" in the college premises on 9th Jan 2022. The students and the villagers dressed in their traditional best decorated the premises with Rangoli and took part in various activities.

Entire corridor of the campus is beautifully decorated by the students, who took it as a fun activity. The entire college wore a colorful look with Rangolies. Students and village women decorated the Rangolies by keeping "Gobbemmas" at the center of Rangolies. The initiative was appreciated by, Principal of the college and in his Sankranthi wishes message he addressed the participants, to fly high on their Dreams and aspirations like a kite, but stay grounded on your values like the string that holds the kite.

The principal of RISE Krishna Sai Gandhi group of Institution started the program with his speech wishing the participants to develop the forgotten Indian tradition and festive culture. The Chief Advisor of RAGA committee Sidda Pravallika Garu gave her valuable message and explained about importance of Indian culture and importance of decorating the mother earth. At the end of the program as a token of love Chief Guest was felicitated by the college management and the program ended with the vote of thanks.

REPORT ON THE ROAD SAFTY AWARENESS PROGRAM

Date: 04.02.2022

Venue: ONGOLE

No.of.Participants:60

Collaboration with District Traffic Police

On Feb04, 2022, students of RISE Krishna Sai Gandhi Group of Institutions initiated a significant program titled "Gift a Helmet." The primary objective of this program was to promote road safety and reduce the risk of head injuries among motorcycle riders by distributing free helmets.

Objectives:

- Promoting Road Safety: Creating awareness about the importance of wearing helmets for motorcycle riders.
- Preventing Head Injuries: Mitigating the risk of head injuries in case of accidents by encouraging helmet usage.
- Community Engagement: Involving the community in a proactive effort to enhance road safety.
- Student Initiative: Empowering students to take a leadership role in addressing critical social issues.

Program Highlights:

- The "Gift a Helmet" program involved various activities to achieve its objectives:
- Helmet Distribution: Free helmets were distributed to motorcycle riders, prioritizing individuals who may not have access to or afford proper safety gear.
- Awareness Campaigns: Students conducted awareness campaigns at key locations, emphasizing the life-saving benefits of wearing helmets and the legal requirements associated with it.
- Collaboration with Authorities: The program collaborated with local authorities to ensure the distribution adhered to safety standards and regulations.
- Educational Workshops: Workshops were organized to educate participants about the importance of road safety, the proper way to wear helmets, and the role of individuals in reducing road accidents.

Outcome:

The "Gift a Helmet" program achieved noteworthy outcomes:

- Increased Helmet Usage: The distribution of free helmets contributed to an immediate increase in helmet usage among motorcycle riders, enhancing overall road safety.
- Community Participation: The program successfully engaged the community in discussions about road safety, fostering a sense of responsibility among both riders and pedestrians.
- Collaboration with Authorities: The collaboration with local authorities strengthened the impact of the initiative, ensuring the distribution was conducted in compliance with safety regulations.
- Positive Feedback: Participants expressed gratitude for the free helmets and the awareness campaigns, indicating a positive reception of the program within the community.
- Potential Accident Reduction: While the immediate impact on accident rates may be challenging to measure, the program laid the groundwork for a safer road culture by promoting responsible behavior.
